

THE LOCAL LORE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

Mrs. Cal Everetts is quite ill. Bring your job work to The Tribune printery.

J. L. Gandy was down from Humboldt Friday.

George Hall was down from Verdon Wednesday.

Harry Hughes was over from Padonia Thursday.

Last Thursday was a typical circus day—hot and dusty.

New U. S. cream separator for sale cheap. See Chas. P. Stump.

Dr. Geo. W. Reneker.—Graduate Optician. Eyestested, frames fitted.

The Misses Patzman are visiting relatives and friends in Fairbury.

Fred Mosiman left Saturday for a week's stay in Fargo, North Dakota.

Better have other people get stuck on you than get stuck on yourself.

Mrs. Sue DeWald went to Auburn the first of the week to visit her daughter.

Terry Kemist came down from Dawson to see the elephant and visit old friends.

Mrs. Allan D. May and little son were down from Auburn for a short visit during the week.

Lost—Gold open face watch and monogram fob. Finder please return to this office and receive reward.

Mrs. Al Stouffer and son came down from Salem the latter part of the week to spend a few days with Mr. Stouffer.

Ben Reichers, who is now on the road representing a lumber company of Kansas City spent Sunday at his home in this city.

Dick James sent the Tribune a souvenir postal from Dallas, Texas, during the week stating he was having the time of his life.

Mrs. Harry Foehlinger arrived in the city Thursday evening from McCook, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Isabelle.

Esburn Wheeler and wife of Stella were among the Stella people who came down on circus day for the big show and a visit with friends.

Over Nemaha county the oats crop was a decided success this year, and wherever any has been threshed out the yield has been fully as good as was expected.

Friday was clean up day with our business men. They got out bright and early and in a short time Stone street was swept and the rubbish hauled away and all traces of the circs of the day before removed.

Miss Mamie Ryan went to Falls City the first of the week to spend about two weeks visiting friends at that place and at Rulo and Shubert, enjoying a vacation from her duties at the Gilmore-Armstrong store.—Auburn Herald.

Mrs. Frank Maryin, Mrs. Douglas and Master George Strong stopped off in this city Tuesday, enroute from Oklahoma City to Omaha, where they will visit a few days with Sam Heiser and family, when Mrs. Douglas will go on to her home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa and Mrs. Marvin will return here for a visit with old friends.

The Hiawatha ball team is having its troubles, too. After having bills printed and all arrangements made for a game, the fair association notified them they would have to come through with rental, after they had spent their money in fitting up the diamond. That measly $5 looks so big to the fair association that they lose sight of the big returns derived from a winning ball team.

For Sale.

Full oak, hand carved bed room suit. Extra large bevel plate mirror on dresser. A bargain if taken at once. C. F. Reavis.

Recorder L. C. Edwards came up from Falls City Saturday and made a trip to Lincoln, calling at Fairview to secure inside information as to whether Mr. Bryan would consent to accept the nomination tendered him so unexceptedly at Denver.—The Humboldt Leader.

H. F. Richart brought into this office on Tuesday afternoon a sample of the Red Astrakhan apple, which he raises and which was one of the finest specimens we have seen in a long time. Mr. Richart had had his apples on display during the horticultural meeting.

Mrs. W. D. Easley, who has been visiting for a time in Stella, came down Wednesday and will visit for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. E. F. Sharts, before returning to her home in Kansas City.

The Hiawatha people are much pleased at the patronage received from Falls City during their chautauqua. You will have a chance to show your appreciation when our assembly opens.

There is only one week more within which political aspirants may file their names with the county clerk if they wish to aspire to office this fall.

Almost all of the oats is cut now and the farmers are getting ready to thresh from the shock as soon as the corn can be laid by.—Auburn Herald.

V. G. Lyford has a new delivery wagon making the rounds for the store. It was turned out by Ed Daeschner and is a fine piece of workmanship.

Mrs. Will Wigton and son Dorington, went to Council Bluffs Iowa, Sunday for a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. John Martin.

The merchants whose names appear in our Chautauqua Daily are the ones who want your trade at that time and are asking for it.

Frank Marvin arrived in the city Wednesday from Oklahoma City, and will remain here for a short visit with old friends.

Miss Jule Berry of Atchison spent a portion of the week visiting in the city with her sister, Mrs. John Startzel.

Geo. Slocum of near Stella was visiting with his brother Jim and family in this city during the week.

Mrs. John Martin of Lincoln spent this week in the city with her parents, M. Giannini and wife.

G. W. Inskeep rested from his road duties for a few days during the week and remained at home.

Mrs. Sam Curtis of St. Joe spent a few days during the week with her sister, Mrs. R. R. Rule.

Mrs. Frank Clegg of Excelsior Springs, Mo., is visiting with her parents, Wm. Gossett and wife.

According to the Hiawatha World, there were fifty autos in that burg on Sunday.

Lena Brecht went to St. Joe Sunday where she expects to remain for some time.

Mrs. Lillian Smith and baby of Omaha are guests at the home of Supt. Oliver.

FOR SALE—Good rain or slop barrels, at 65c. each, at Heck's feed store.

Anna Kratz returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Reserve.

Etta Sheehan of Atchison is visiting with her parents in this city.

New U. S. cream separator for sale cheap. See Chas. P. Stump.

Miss Fannie Hynek of Humboldt, spent Friday in this city.

Herbert Hedges visited with his family here this week.

Best Wisconsin Rye Flour at Heck's feed store. tf

Best Wisconsin Rye Flour at Heck's feed store. tf

Pete Frederick jr. was a business visitor in St. Joe this week.

Mrs. George Boyer went to St. Joe Wednesday for a few days visit.

Mrs. Wm. Cade returned today from an extended visit in Osborn, Kansas.

Mrs. Nannie Hinkle and baby of Stella are visiting friends in this city.

FOR SALE—Good rain or slop barrels, at 65c. each, at Heck's feed store.

Wanted—Old newspapers, magazines, periodicals, books etc. Phone 394. 27-2t

Mrs. Georgia Adams returned Wednesday from a visit with relatives in Stella.

The finest stationery is turned out by the Tribune printery. A trial is all we ask.

W. S. Korner returned Wednesday from a trip through southern Kansas and Oklahoma.

Guy Hutchins and wife of Shubert visited at the home of Warren Hutchins this week.

Ethel Leyda of Plattsmouth arrived in the city Tuesday for a two weeks visit with relatives here.

Mae Gagnon held the lucky number which drew the $5 given away at the Lyric Tuesday evening.

"Dad" Turner was down from Humboldt during the week visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Albright.

Mrs. Vina Long and daughter Edith of Omaha were in the city during the week, guests of Mrs. Belle Mulligan.

A. J. Weaver returned Wednesday morning from a several weeks stay in the west, where he has been looking after business matters.

That bunch of automobiles on the street Wednesday morning was enough to make our liverymen turn green with envy.

The automobile fever has struck Falls City. We have had it for some time, the only difference between us and our aspiration being our pocket book.

Mrs. Jacob Mack, out on Route 2, has our thanks for favors this week. She had not been in town since April and made this trip for the purpose of renewing her subscription.

Lawrence Meyers arrived in the city Wednesday from Pennsylvania. He will remain here for a short visit, going from here to the L. Weaver ranch in the western part of the state.

Nie Williamson and Dora Cox both of Barada surprised their many friends by being married while in this city last Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Judge Gagnon at the court house.

J. O. Shroyer of Humboldt, one of the leading agricultural writers of the state, was in attendance at the Horticultural meeting and it was through the kindness of Mr. Shroyer that The Tribune gained much information along horticultural lines.

Mrs. James Thompson went down to Falls City yesterday to bring home her daughter, Miss Myrtle Rooker, who is quite ill. She will also be accompanied by a daughter, Alice Thompson, who has been visiting with relatives there.—Humboldt Leader.

Bill Wilson, a brother of our Charley, is visiting in this city. Bill lived here years ago but is now a resident of Ohio. This is the first visit here for a number of years, and during his absence had gained so much avoirdupois that we hardly knew him. He will make two of his brother Charles.

Money to Loan. Mortgages Bought

If you wish to get a loan on your land, or have a mortgage to sell, write me. 20 years in business. Stock and fruit farm to rent. Also 320 acre stock and dairy farm. HENRY C. SMITH, Falls City, Neb.

Rev. R. R. Teeter, A. M., went to Plainview Monday morning, where he delivered one temperance and one popular lecture at the Chautauqua and delivered a like series Wednesday and Thursday at the Chautauqua in Syracuse, Nebr.

The annual offering of the Methodist church will be received Sunday. Make your pledge even if you do not enclose the money. The pastor will preach a missionary sermon and in the evening on "A Skeleton in the closet."

Gus Ruegge returned the latter part of the week from the western part of the state. Gus heard of the wonderful things our ball boys are doing and it made him homesick.

In order to meet the demands for flour the Heacock mill has been forced to run over time during the week. Our people are all learning where they can get the best.

Misses Ruth Lapp and Francis Watson of Freeport, Ill., stopped off in this city Tuesday on their way to Portland, Ore., for a day's visit with Miss Oddie Lapp.

Our Chautauqua daily will be a winner. All our merchants are more than pleased with the plan and are anxious to get their names in the advertising columns.

A. L. Slack returned Monday to his home in Leavenworth, after a few days visit with old friends here. Mrs. Slack will remain for a more extended visit.

Miss Stella Knickerbocker returned this week from quite an extended visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Goldie Dunkelberger returned from New Mexico Saturday after a three month's stay among relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Crook returned the first of the week from a month spent in Colorado.

A number of our young people drove to Sun Springs Sunday and spent a very pleasant day.

Frank McDermid of Kansas City, was looking after business here the first of the week.

Miss Mildred Shirley of Humboldt was the guest of Mrs. Dr. Wilson this week.

Miss Bessie Slater and Alice Brinnegar of Salem were in our city Saturday.

Will Carico and wife enjoyed the band concert in Rulo Saturday evening.

Miss Ida Pribbeno spent Sunday with her parents in Preston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Roberts went to Kansas City Saturday.

Miss Cora Plumb spent Sunday with friends in Hiawatha.

Miss Mary Wiltse spent Sunday in Rulo.

Mow your weeds. Do it now.

About Dipping Hogs

MANY people who have dipped their hogs with Dipolene have had better results

The strength of Dipolene is 1 to 90, according to the Government standard.

A large supply can be found at

McMILLAN'S
PHARMACY

Falls City, Nebraska

Hermes Bros. are paying 20c. for butter fat.

O. Schoenheit and wife went to Kansas City Monday for a few days stay.

W. D. Easley of Kansas City Sundayed in this city with E. F. Sharts and wife.

Ira McCool came down from Salem Sunday and spent the day with friends here.

John McCool of Salem spent a portion of the past week with friends in this city.

It is reported that Ringlings' circus has Falls City on its route near the close of the season.

Edna Schaible returned Friday from a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. Louie Banks at Fortescue.

James Sinclair and family of Preston spent Sunday in this city at the home of Mrs. Margery Grant.

Mrs. Glenn Bronson of Verdon spent Sunday in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rammel.

Mrs. J. M. Schoenheit and daughter, Erma of Kansas City are in the city guests at the home of J. M. Whittaker.

Ed. Bell, who is now representing an Omaha drug house was visiting his many friends in this city during the week.

Neal Thornton, who has spent several weeks among old friends and relatives in this city returned Monday to Muskogee.

Saturday, July 25th the Holy Eucharist will be celebrated at St. Thomas church at 10:30 a.m., it being the feast of St. James the apostle.

Frank Smith and wife went over to Sycamore Springs the fore part of the week where they will spend ten days taking a much needed rest.

Chas. Heineman and his side walk gang this week laid a fine cement walk around the property of G. W. Inskeep and in front of the German hall.

Fred E. Schmidt and wife went to Weeping Water Sunday to visit relatives. They will also spend a short time in Omaha before they return.

There will be no evening service in St. Thomas church until September 1st as Rev. Neide will be absent helping with church work throughout the state.

The Clevelands from Nebraska City came down Sunday for a few hours visit with friends here. They made the trip in their auto and report a delightful ride.

Hon. George Coupland of Elgin one of the principle speakers during the session of the Horticultural society, was the guest of V. G. Lyford while in the city.

Ernest Vincent came down from Shenandoah, Iowa and spent Sunday in this city with his wife and baby who are visiting at the home of her parents, Wm. Sears and wife.

You cannot expect the property owners to keep their lawns mowed and weeds down, when the city allows all vacant lots and the streets to present the appearance of jungles.

Trim your trees. If we are not mistaken there is an ordinance pertaining to the height trees along walks should be trimmed, but judging from appearances no attention is paid to it.

Congressman Pollard was in the city during the week attending the Horticultural meeting and visiting his many friends. While in the city he was entertained at the home of J. R. Wilhite.

F. A. Harrison is before the primaries of Lancaster county as a candidate for the legislature. He stands on a broad platform; viz: Guarantee of bank deposits. County option and an amendment of the primary law to the end that the voters may select their committeemen and delegates to conventions. It looks as though legislative timber will be called upon by the voter to place themselves squarely on important issues if they expect success at the polls.

The American boys who are participating in the Olympian games at London are showing the world's best athletes up as "dubs". England has tried to fix things so as to compel our boys to work under great disadvantages, but it takes more than unfairness to keep an American down. So far we have broken nine world's records as well as the hearts of our English cousins.

The friends of Miss Lillian C. Banks, formerly of Chicago, latter of Falls City, will be pleased to learn that Mr. Joseffy, the great music master and artist, on hearing her play recently in New York City, pronounced her gifted. She is now under his guidance for an artist's career.

Mrs. Katherine Hoppe and daughter, Grace, and Miss Stumbo left Saturday for Black Hawk, Colo., where they will visit for some time with George Hoppe and family.

The opening day of our Chautauqua will be one of the big days. An opportunity to hear Senator Dolliver should be embraced by every one who enjoys oratory at its best.

The republican county central committee meets Saturday and the candidates may be expected to make their announcements in the near future.

They are again talking division in Hiawatha. That is the subject they keep in reserve over there when they are shy on news.

That "staunch old democrat" Jim DeWald, added his name to the list of readers to this great republican sheet during the week.

Mrs. K. M. Walker of New Orleans returned home yesterday after a visit in this city with her grandmother, Mrs. Barbara Dilts.

Harry Jacobs returned the first of the week from a few days spent in Pawnee, looking after the business in the Seff store.

Miss Jessie Odell returned to her home in Omaha on Saturday, after a ten days visit in this city with the Misses McMillan.

Miss Mary Haver, who had been the guest of Lela Powell for a few days, returned Sunday to her home in Hiawatha.

M. Seff came down from Pawnee to remain over circus day and help in the big rush at his clothing store at that time.

The colored population of Hiawatha are arranging for a big emancipation celebration on Saturday, August 1st.

By action of the official board evening services are suspended for five Sundays at the Methodist church.

Dana Peterson returned to her home in Salem Thursday after a week spent with Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott.

Chas. Schulenburg and wife of Verdon were pleasant callers at this office while in the city Saturday.

E. O. Lewis is the latest addition to the Tribune family, he having joined the circle yesterday.

R. B. Johnson and family departed Saturday night for their new home in Santa Ann, Cali.

John Hutchings left Wednesday for Oklahoma, where he goes to look after business affairs.

The automobile bug has struck Falls City and the nervous horse is having his troubles.

Mrs. Ferd Harlow went to Rulo the first of the week for a short visit with relatives.

Ben Dilley was among those from Hiawatha who saw the elephant circus day.

Miss Mary Russell of Salem was the guest of Anita Wilson during the week.

H. H. McCoy editor of the Dawson News Boy was in the city Saturday.

George Lyons is among the new ones to join our family circle this week.

Miss Frankie Moran is back at her old position at the telephone office.